There's serious danger in neglecting any weakness of the kidneys. The warning that Nature gives should not be overlooked. If troubled by too frequent passage of the kidney secretions; burning or scalding; if the secretions are highly colored and contain sediment when left standing-if you have backache, too, with frequent beadaches and dizziness, make up your mind that your kidneys are effected and begin using some reliable kidney remedy. Deaths from kidney disease hase increased in the United States alone, 72 per cent in the last 20 years. The risk is great-you can't afford to delay. Maysville people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Can you ask for better proof of merit than the statement of this Maysville resident?

W. F. Lynch, 127 W. Third St. Maysville, Ky., says: "My kidneys were weak and the passages of the kidney secretions were scanty and painful. Having used Doan's Kidney Pills before, I again got a box and they quickly restored my kidneys to a formal condition !

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy-get Doan's Kidney Pills-the same that Mr. Lynch had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

++++++++++++++ SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

FOR APRIL 16.

"PETER AND CORNELIUS"

Tenth Chapter of Acts.

(By Rev. A. F. Stahl.)

This lesson taken from the Book of Acts again impresses us with the fact that that book is a record of conversions. Of all those recorded, this account of the conversion of Corneius is the lengthiest. The entire tenth chapter is used in giving the circumand then these are reveiwed by Peter before the Jewish Council as recorded in the eleventh chapter. One other engthy record of a conversion is that of Saul of Tarsus. The conversion of Paul was important because of what he was to do as the Apostle to the Gentiles and the conversion of Cornelius is important because of it being a proof to the Jewish Christians and to to be admitted into the church upon the same terms as were the Jews. Up attended prayer meeting. to this time the gospel had been tles had not come to see the full Sunday with their parents. meaning of the commission which told them to preach to every creature in the whole world. It may have been that the eunuch whom Philip preached Pelman Paul. to and whom he baptized was a Gentile who had accepted the Jewish religion. The Samaritans whom Philip blooded Jews, but they claimed some burg. relationship and therefore their acceptance would not meet with so much tile. The record of Cornelius' conversion is therefore very important to all

In this record we will find that new task of preaching to this Gentile that God had accepted the Gentile his lesson through the vision of the sheet let down from heaven. The six Quinn. Jews were convinced when they saw that the Holy Spirit was given to these Gentiles as it had been given to the Jews on the Day of Pentecost. The miraculous element in this conver sion was more for the benefit of others who were already converted to the gospel of Christ than it was for Cornelius who, through their preaching was to be brought to a belief in Jesus the Christ.

It used to be thought that there could be no true case of conversion without the miraculous or mysterious element. But in this day when the records of the Acts of the Apostles are better understood, the miraculous element is no longer stressed.

The Good Moral Man. Cornelius was a man of good standing. He was an officer in the army and very religious. "One who worshipped God with all his house, who gave much alms to the people and prayed to God always." No doubt but that God was pleased with him and his worship, but he needed to know, as every other man, good or bad, needs to know "that there is no other name given under heaven or among men whereby we must be saved" except the name Jesus. This man may have heard only some reports about this Jesus, and to him some minister must

Mr. Airy, N. C.—Mrs. Sarah M. Chap-pell of this town, says: "I suffered for live years with womanly troubles, also stomach troubles, and my punishment was more than any one could tell.

I tried most every kind of medicine, but none did me any good. I read one day about Cardul, the wo-man's tonic, and I decided to try it. I had not taken but about six bottles until I was almost cured. It did me more good than all the other medicines I had tried, put together.

My friends began asking me why I looked so well, and I told them about Cardui. Several are now taking it." Do you, lady reader, suffer from any of the ailments due to womanly trouble such as headache, backache, sideache sleeplessness, and that everlastingly tired
